NEWS of WORLD MARKETS WILSON WANTS ASWELL

TRADING ATTENDED BY GENERAL FIRMNESS

New York, July 5.—Resumption of trading on the stock exchange over the holiday was attended by general firmness among the usual leaders. Equipments, coppers, oils and motors contributed their regular quota, the latter scoring largest gains. United States Steel was active with Bethlehem, Crucible and Midvale issues, and low-priced mining shares extended their gains of the early week, but_rails remained in the background. Liberty bonds were steady.

United States Seeel led the moderate activity and higher prices of the noon hour, extending its gain to slightly more than a point. Other firm to strong issues, including General Motors, Central Leather, United States Rubher, International Nickel and National Enameling.

United States Steel and other leaders registered highest prices in the final hour. The closing was strong. Liberty 3½s sold at 99.58 to 99.62; first 4s at 94.04 to 94.19; second 4s at 94.06 to 94.12, and 4½s at 96.08 to 96.20.

WHY WOMEN LOVE SOLDIERS: IT'S NOT THE BUTTONS AT ALL

(Corra Harris in (N. Y.) Independent.)

Every man in this valley had his own view of this war and every woman held the same view. We were fighting, they told me, for the women and children in France and Belgium whom the Germans were starving, and for the women and children here who would starve if the Germans who would starve if the Germans conquered.
